Wall Street Exchange (WSE) Professional Development & Leadership Program

The Financial Women's Association (FWA) is now accepting applications for our highly competitive 2025 Wall Street Exchange (WSE) Professional Development and Leadership Program.

The 2025 Wall Street Exchange Program will be primarily virtual, with highly interactive and engaging workshops and webinars hosted by our partner firms. If circumstances permit, will host one or more events in person in New York City. The program consists of a series of virtual workshops hosted by top firms and companies for professional and personal development as well as networking with industry professionals. Each year, the exact lineup of partner firms varies.

Interested students should apply to the program as early as possible, even if they have not finalized their summer employment or internship plans. Proof of internship can be provided prior to the start of the program during the week of June 9, 2025.

Celebration of Student Achievement

Tuesday, April 29, 2025
<https://celebration.tcnj.edu>

Monitor the website for the full day schedule! If you are presenting and need assistance with printing your posters, contact horners@tcnj.edu.

The 28th Annual Celebration of Student Achievement will feature the research, scholarship and creative activity of TCNJ students from all disciplines. Throughout the day, students will present their work in papers, posters, video, panels, performing arts presentations and exhibitions, and other forms of scholarly or creative activity.

On this day, all classes normally scheduled to start before 5 pm will not be held. Review your course syllabi for more information.

We hope to see many of our business students presenting their work. If you are not, we hope you go see what your classmates are doing and support them!
